

Exchequer Court of Canada.—1964. Apr. 23, Wilbur Roy Jackett, Montreal, Que.: to be President from May 4, 1964. Hon. Hugh F. Gibson, Kingston, Ont.: to be a Puisne Judge from May 4, 1964. June 30, A. A. M. Walsh: to be a Puisne Judge from July 1, 1964.

Parliamentary Secretaries.—1964. Feb. 17, Guy Rouleau: to the Prime Minister. Feb. 20, Hubert Badanai: to the Minister of Citizenship and Immigration. Bruce S. Beer: to the Minister of Agriculture and the Minister of Forestry, jointly. Alexis Caron: to the Postmaster General. Stanley Haidasz: to the Secretary of State for External Affairs. G. Roy McWilliam: to the Minister of Public Works. John C. Munro: to the Minister of National Health and Welfare. John B. Stewart: to the Secretary of State of Canada. June 29, Lawrence T. Pennell: to the Minister of Finance.

Deputy Ministers.—1964. May 7, Marcel Cadieux, Ottawa, Ont.: to be Under Secretary of State for External Affairs, vice Norman A. Robertson, resigned. Granville George Ernest Steele, Ottawa, Ont.: to be Under Secretary of State from May 15, 1964, vice Jean Miquelon, resigned. Jean Miquelon: to continue as Deputy Registrar General of Canada from May 15, 1964. July 3, Jack Hamilton Warren, Ottawa, Ont.: to be Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce from Sept. 1, 1964, vice James Alan Roberts, resigned. Sol Simon Reisman, Ottawa, Ont.: to be Deputy Minister of Industry, vice D. A. Golden, resigned. Sept. 28, Richard Humphrys: to be Superintendent of Insurance, vice K. R. MacGregor, resigned.

Diplomatic Appointments.—1964. The following diplomatic appointments were announced during the year. Hon. Milton F. Gregg: to be Commissioner for Canada to British Guiana. Donald Wallace Munroe: to be Commissioner for Canada on the International Commission for Supervision and Control in Laos. Lionel Chevrier: to be High Commissioner of Canada to Britain. Léon Mayrand: to be Canadian Ambassador to Cuba and concurrently Canadian Ambassador to Haiti. Ralph Edgar Collins: to be Canadian Ambassador to South Africa. George Kinnear Grande: to be High Commissioner for Canada to Ceylon. Jules Léger: to be Canadian Ambassador to France. Gordon Gale Crean: to be Canadian Ambassador to Italy. Herbert Frederick Brooks-Hill Fever: to be Canadian Ambassador to Mexico and Guatemala. Ronald Macalister Macdonnell: to be Canadian Ambassador to Indonesia. Norman Frederick Henderson Berlis, High Commissioner for Canada to Tanganyika and Uganda: to be concurrently High Commissioner for Canada to Kenya. James Blair Seaborn: to be Canadian Commissioner on the International Supervisory Commission for Viet Nam. Jean-Louis Delisle: to be Canadian Ambassador to Turkey. Jean Bruchési: to be Canadian Ambassador to Argentina and concurrently Canadian Ambassador to Paraguay and Uruguay. John Ryerson Maybee: to be Canadian Ambassador to Lebanon. Benjamin Rogus: to be Canadian Ambassador to Spain and concurrently Canadian Ambassador to Morocco. John Peter Sigvaldason: to be Canadian Ambassador to Norway and concurrently Canadian Ambassador to Iceland. Malcolm Norman Bow: to be Canadian Ambassador to Czechoslovakia. Harry Havilland Carter: to be Canadian Ambassador to Finland. René Garneau: to be Canadian Ambassador to Switzerland and concurrently to Tunisia. Ormond Wilson Dier: to be Canadian Ambassador to Colombia and concurrently to Ecuador. Ross Campbell: to be Canadian Ambassador to Yugoslavia. J. H. Cleveland: to be High Commissioner for Canada to Nigeria. Hon. Roland Michener: to be High Commissioner for Canada to India. Bruce Irving Rankin: to be Canadian Ambassador to Venezuela and concurrently to the Dominican Republic. William George Marcel Olivier: to be Canadian Ambassador to Costa Rica and concurrently to Panama, Nicaragua, Honduras and El Salvador.

National Defence Appointments.—1964. Aug. 1, Frank R. Miller: to be Chief of Defence Staff in the rank of Air Chief Marshal. Lieutenant-General G. Walsh: to be Vice-Chief of Defence Staff. Air Vice-Marshal W. W. Bean: to be Assistant Chief of Defence Staff. Lieutenant-General J. V. Allard: to be Chief of Operational Readiness. Vice-