

NORTHERN ROADS PROGRAM

The northern road system began with the building, in 1942, of the Alaska Highway, originally a military project but now a well-travelled scenic route from which branch access roads to many points in northern British Columbia and the Yukon Territory.

Data provided by the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources.

Photos by the National Film Board.