

and denied access to counsel tabled in the House of Commons; report found the procedures followed in most cases were beyond reproach. Apr. 6, Announcement of Canadian Government program to equip and train an air force in the African Commonwealth country of Tanzania. Leonard S. Marchand, a member of the Okanagan Indian Band, appointed Special Assistant to Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, the first Indian to be appointed to the personal staff of a Federal Cabinet Minister. Apr. 7, Hon. Léon Balcer, M.P. for Trois-Rivières, left the Progressive Conservative Party to sit in the House of Commons as an Independent. Apr. 8, Announcement of Canada's financial participation in the $1,000,000,000 aid plan for Southeast Asia proposed by U.S. President Johnson. Tributes expressed in the House of Commons in recognition of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Salvation Army; special service of commemoration held in Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa. Apr. 9, Gift of $20,000 by the Federal Government to the Canadian Red Cross, in addition to the $5,000 provided by the CRC from its own funds, for aid in Chile following an earthquake. Apr. 10, Formal opening of $1,000,000 air terminal at London, Ont. Collision between Dutch ship Hermes and the German ship Transatlantic in the St. Lawrence River near Trois-Rivières resulted in the death of three seamen and the sinking of the latter ship. Apr. 13, Albert Williamson, a public relations man, committed for trial on charges of forging the signature of Premier W. A. C. Bennett on a letter to the special assistant to Prime Minister Pearson, supporting the application of Harry Stonehill for landed immigrant status in Canada subsequent to his rejection by the Department of Citizenship and Immigration; sentenced June 4 to two six-month concurrent jail terms and fined $1,000. Allotment of $3,300,000 for a nation-wide festival of the performing arts in Canada's centennial year announced by the Federal Government. Apr. 17, CPR passenger train, carrying 375 passengers, derailed near Terrace Bay, Ont.; one person killed and 47 injured. Apr. 21, Gregory Clark, veteran Toronto newspaper man, named first honorary member of a newly instituted News Hall of Fame. Apr. 23, Following the claim of Quebec Education Minister Gérin-Lajoie that the Quebec Government has the right to conclude "agreements" with foreign governments about matters coming under its field of jurisdiction, External Affairs Minister Martin declared that independent "treaty-making powers" are the prerogative of sovereign states. Apr. 26, The Federal Budget announced by Finance Minister Gordon included benefits for business and a 10-p.c. cut in personal income tax. Apr. 28, 1,200 representatives of the Ontario Farmers' Union marched on Parliament Hill and presented a petition to the Federal Cabinet requesting higher farm support prices. Death of John Adams in Brantford, one of the founders of the Royal Canadian Legion and first President of the Legion's Branch No. 1 in Toronto. Apr. 29, The Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal for Humor presented to veteran newspaper man Gregory Clark. Apr. 30, The Vanier Institute of the Family received charter; Dr. Wilder Penfield of Montreal elected President.

May: Construction started on the $500,000,000 Columbia River power project officially. The Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, to establish an Indian Hall of Fame, beginning with a portrait gallery honouring 12 famous Canadian Indians. The first of across-Canada network of emergency telephone centres protected from nuclear bomb radiation established at Red Deer, Alta. May 1, Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ont., celebrated its 100th anniversary. The Montreal Canadiens won the Stanley Cup, symbol of professional hockey supremacy. May 2, Georges Lemay, one of Canada's most wanted criminals, arrested in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., following broadcast of his picture as part of the Canadian contribution to the inauguration of the international television facilities of the Early Bird satellite. May 4, Appointment of a Special Committee on Corrections announced by Justice Minister Favreau; Mr. Justice Roger Ouimet of Montreal, chairman. May 6, Senator Norman Paterson installed as first Chancellor of Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology, Port Arthur, Ont., to reopen in September as Lakehead University. May 7, Toronto's three daily newspapers and 225 members of the Toronto Mailers Union reached agreement for a return to work after a mailers' strike which began July 9, 1964. Two Soviet diplomats expelled from Canada following discovery of an alleged plot to establish an extensive espionage network in Canada; one of the two civil servants involved dismissed without right of appeal Dec. 31. May 8, Death of Vice-Admiral H. T. W. Grant, former Chief of Naval Staff. May 10, Cornerstone of the National Library and Archives Building, Ottawa, laid by Governor General Vanier. May 11, Seven members of the 12-man team of the 2nd Battalion, the Royal Canadian Regiment, won Duke of Edinburgh trophy for marksmanship and physical fitness for third consecutive year; received the award from Prince Philip at Buckingham Palace. May 11-13, NATO ministerial meeting held in London, England. May 12, In a ruling on charges against non-reserve Indians of failing to pay compulsory premiums for Saskatchewan hospital and medical care, the terms of a Treaty made in 1876 between Queen Victoria and certain Saskatchewan Indian tribes requiring the Federal Government to provide free hospital and medical care for all Indians in the province, were upheld. May 19, Federal program outlined to assist persons moving from one community to another for employment; revolving loan fund of $5,000,000 and an additional $5,000,000 annually in grants to be provided. Arrival in Ottawa of Their Imperial Majesties the Shah of Iran and Empress Farah beginning an eight-day state visit to Canada. May 20, Holland became the first country to make a formal contract for participation in Expo 67. Admiral of the Fleet Earl Mountbatten of Burma visited Prime Minister Pearson in Ottawa as head of a British mission of inquiry into Commonwealth immigration problems. May 21, The flag of Ontario—the Red Ensign bearing the Ontario Coat of Arms—proclaimed. Hon. George A. Drew, former High Commissioner for Canada to Britain, installed as Chancellor of the University of Guelph at its first convocation. May 24, One of seven Scarves of Honour crocheted by Queen Victoria in 1900 for presentation to Boer War heroes, won 65 years ago by Pte. Richard Rowland Thompson of Ottawa, presented by his nephew, S. F. Thompson of Cork, Ireland, to Governor General Vanier in ceremony on Parliament Hill; it is on permanent display in the Canadian War Museum. Demonstrations by Quebec separatists in Montreal marked the Victoria Day holiday, resulting in about 25 arrests; three monuments in Quebec City defaced in other demonstrations. May 27, Plans announced for a $10,000,000 provincial park along the north shore of the Ottawa river between Carillon and Hull—a joint federal-provincial centennial project. May 28, Four Canadians in first unescorted transatlantic flight of a helicopter from Stratford, Conn., U.S.A. to Prestwick, Scotland. May 31, Death of Hon. George Nowlan, M.P. for Digby-Annapolis-Kings since 1950, and former Minister of National Revenue and Minister of Finance.

June: June 1, Document on "Principles of Union" made public by the Anglican and United Churches of Canada; to be studied by committees of each denomination. The world's first icebreaking cable-repair ship built for the Canadian Coast Guard christened CCGS John Cabot at Montreal. June 2, Legislation providing for the retirement of Senators at age 75 received assent. June 3-6, U.S. astronauts