

representatives; workers outside Metropolitan Montreal returned to work. Aug. 7, Montreal workers returned to work after additional concessions.) July 28, Death of Lionel Vincent Massey, elder son of former Governor General Vincent Massey. Announcement of election of Mme Thérèse Casgrain of Montreal to the 100-member presidium of the World Peace Congress, at recent meeting in Helsinki. July 30, Mr. Justice Samuel H. S. Hughes of the Supreme Court of Ontario appointed commissioner to investigate the collapse of Atlantic Acceptance Corp. Ltd. and its tangled financial transactions with other companies, which went into receivership in June with debts estimated at $115,000,000. Arrival in Canada of a U.S.S.R. trade mission for a three-week tour.

August: Aug. 2, Beneficiaries of the $100,000,000 estate of Mrs. Izaak Walton Killam, widow of the late Nova Scotia-born industrialist and financier, included the University of Alberta ($6,000,000), Dalhousie University ($10,000,000), the University of British Columbia ($4,000,000), the Children's Hospital in Halifax ($8,000,000), and the Montreal Neurological Institute. Aug. 3, Sixth Conference of Provincial Premiers opened in Winnipeg, with eight Premiers attending; agenda included standards in education and adoption practices, portability of private pensions and interprovincial co-ordination. Aug. 4, Ottawa City Council approved construction of a multi-purpose Civic Sports Centre to be completed by Jan. 1, 1967; project depends on contributions from other levels of government and on costs. Aug. 5, Report of Mr. Justice George Chailles of the Quebec Superior Court into the cause of the crash of a DC-8 jet near Montreal on Nov. 29, 1963, gave the probable cause but said "the actual cause of the accident cannot be determined with certainty". Quebec provincial legislation passed creating the City of Laval by the amalgamation of the 14 municipalities of Ile Jésus. Aug. 9, Singapore seceded from the 23-month-old Federation of Malaysia to form an independent nation. Report of Commissioner Murray V. Jones on local government at Ottawa released by Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs; recommended sweeping changes in hydro, transportation, education and other established authorities, and the creation of a regional government to replace municipal governments in the region. Aug. 10, Grain handlers in Port of Montreal, on strike since June 16, returned to work. Aug. 11, sale of 5,000,000 tons of wheat and wheat flour to the U.S.S.R. announced, bringing total purchased by that country in the current crop year to about 222,000,000 bu. Aug. 12, Announcement of India's first industrial investment in the Western Hemisphere—a mill to convert what is now largely wasted timber into hardboard—to be established in Nova Scotia. Aug. 14, Race riots in Los Angeles, Cal., were responsible for 12 deaths, devastation of much of the city's Negro district, looting, etc. Report released by the Royal Commission on Government Administration, established July 1964. Aug. 16, Grain handlers in Port of Vancouver, on strike since June 2, returned to work. Aug. 16, A six-member U.S.S.R. delegation specializing in northern development and construction began 18-day tour of Canada—a sequel to a visit to the U.S.S.R. by Northern Affairs and National Resources Minister Laing. Aug. 18, Commemorative ceremonies marked the 25th anniversary of a meeting between U.S. President Roosevelt and Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King at Ogdensburg, N.Y., which resulted in the founding of the Canada-U.S. Permanent Joint Board on Defence. Aug. 19, Disclosure that investigations into fraudulent bankruptcies in Quebec revealed a loss of $5,400,000 in taxes to the provincial government by bankruptcy rings, underworld racketeers and big business men. Aug. 21, The $2,000,000 Swift Rapid Lock on the Severn River officially opened, eliminating bottleneck on the Trent Canal system by replacing a marine railway. Aug. 23, Death in Vancouver of Hon. George Black, 92, sourdough and lawyer who represented the Yukon Territory in the House of Commons for 23 years and became Speaker of the House. Aug. 23-28, Conference on World Development held at Banff, Alta., co-sponsored by the University of Alberta and the Canadian Institute of International Affairs; the subject for discussion was "The Role of Canada as a Middle Power". Aug. 29, U.S. Gemini V space flight ended; astronauts Cooper and Conrad made 120 orbits of the earth in 7 days, 22 hours and 55 minutes.

September: Hon. Alan A. Macnaughton, former Speaker of the House of Commons, became one of 20 life members of the French National Assembly, an honour conferred on him at meetings in September of the newly formed Canada-France Parliamentary Association. Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Irving of Saint John, N.B., received the Eleanor Roosevelt Humanitarian Award for their friendship and aid to Israel, the first Canadians to be so honoured. U.S. Astronaut Scott Carpenter spent 29 days 205 feet under water in Sealab II off La Jolla, Cal. Sept. 1, Norman A. Robertson, Canadian negotiator in the Kennedy Round of trade and tariff negotiations in Geneva and long-time civil servant, appointed the first Director of the new graduate School of International Affairs at Carleton University, Ottawa. Canada's first travelling livestock exhibit, comprising 20 Canadian Holstein cattle, started a two-month tour of France. Sept. 2, Death in Fort William, Ont., of Rev. Dan McIvor, 94, federal M.P. from 1935 to 1957. Sept. 3, Announcement of Federal Government expenditure of $1,000,000 in 1965-66 on cultural exchanges with French-speaking countries of Europe. Canada's contribution to a five-year program for the establishment of a Tanzanian military air wing announced; to include aircraft and parts and training of personnel. Opening of a Canadian Embassy in Dakar, Senegal, announced. Sept. 4, Death of Dr. Albert Schweitzer, physician, philosopher and musician, who won world acclaim for his humanitarianism and services in Africa. Sept. 8-18, The 54th Conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union held in Ottawa; more than 800 delegates from 61 countries attended. Proclamation of the dissolution of 26th Parliament; federal election called for Nov. 8. Sept. 9, Official opening of Simon Fraser University in Vancouver. Ottawa-Hull area transportation study released, containing recommendations re construction of a system of freeways, arterial streets, downtown distributor road, etc.; estimated cost $435,000,000. Fowler report on broadcasting released; existing regulations criticized, and better and more balanced programming with more Canadian content, and the creation of a Canadian Broadcasting Authority, recommended. Sept. 20, Death of Mrs. Madge Macbeth, author of 20 books, and the first woman President of the Canadian Authors Association, in Ottawa. Announcement that Canada and Britain will share the cost of a survey for the construction of a Zambia-Tanzania railway. Sept. 21, Georges Lemay, wanted in connection with a 1961 bank burglary in Montreal, escaped from a Miami, Florida, jail. Sept. 24, The Royal Canadian Navy's first 2,000-ton Oberon class submarine, Ojibwa, formally commissioned at Chatham, Eng., by Canadian High Commissioner Chevrier. Appointment of Major General B. F. Macdonald to command the newly formed UN India-Pakistan Observation Mission announced. Sept. 28, Death in Montreal of Hon. Herbert J. Symington, former President of Trans-Canada Air Lines. Sept. 29, Death of Ross Hamilton who, as "Marjorie" was a member of the Dumbells, entertainers of World War I fame.

October: Oct. 4, Pope Paul VI, on first visit to the Western Hemisphere, addressed the United Nations General Assembly in New York in the cause of world peace and was acclaimed by 90,000