

Legislation of the First Session of the Twenty-seventh Parliament,
Jan. 18, 1966 to Mar. 22, 1967—continued

Subject, Chapter and Date of Assent	Synopsis
Finance—concluded 1967
87 Mar. 23	The Bank Act is the decennial revision of the Bank Act, empowering the chartered banks to carry on business under revised legislation for a further period of ten years.
88 Mar. 23	An Act to amend the Bank of Canada Act authorizes the Government, under specified conditions, to give the Bank a directive concerning monetary policy, authorizes the imposition of a minimum variable secondary reserve requirement for the chartered banks and makes other technical changes.
89 Mar. 23	The Federal-Provincial Fiscal Arrangements Act, 1967 authorizes the making of certain fiscal payments to provinces, authorizes the entry into tax collection agreements with provinces, and amends the Established Programs (Interim Arrangements) Act.
93 Mar. 23	The Quebec Savings Bank Act is the decennial revision of the Quebec Savings Banks Act, empowering these savings banks to carry on business under revised legislation for a further period of ten years.
Government— 1966
2 Feb. 23	An Act to extend the time for consideration of objections pursuant to section 20 of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act with respect to the reports of commissions established for the decennial census taken in the year 1961.
21 June 2	The Newfoundland Additional Financial Assistance Act, 1966 provides for the payment to the Province of Newfoundland of an annual grant of $8,000,000, being additional financial assistance contemplated by Term 29 of the Terms of Union of Newfoundland with Canada.
22 June 2	An Act to amend the Northwest Territories Act increases the number of elected members of the Council of the Northwest Territories from four to seven; increases to $5,000 per annum the maximum indemnity of elected members, provides for the payment of $3,500 annually to appointed members, and exempts part of these indemnities from income tax; provides for the payment of reasonable travelling and living expenses for members attending sessions of the Council; and makes administrative and financial provisions in connection therewith, as well as other administrative changes.
25 June 16	The Government Organization Act, 1966 authorizes the establishment of several new Departments of Government and the offices of the Ministers of those Departments, setting out their respective powers, duties and functions; administrative and financial matters related or incidental thereto are provided for.
28 June 16	An Act to amend the Yukon Act increases to $5,000 per annum the maximum indemnity payable to members of the Council of the Yukon Territory, part of which is exempt from income tax, and provides for an annual indemnity of $300 to members of the advisory committee on finance; provides for payment of reasonable travelling and living expenses for Council and committee members attending sessions or sittings; and makes administrative and financial provisions in connection therewith, as well as other administrative changes.
57 Dec. 14	The Manitoba-Saskatchewan Boundary Act, 1966 declares a portion of the boundary line surveyed and marked on the ground under the direction of Commissioners appointed therefor to be the boundary line between the Provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.
58 Dec. 14	The Saskatchewan-Northwest Territories Boundary Act, 1966 declares the boundary line surveyed and marked on the ground under the direction of Commissioners appointed therefor to be the boundary between the Province of Saskatchewan and the Northwest Territories.
61 Dec. 21	The Manitoba-Northwest Territories Boundary Act, 1966 declares the boundary line surveyed and marked on the ground under the direction of the Commissioners appointed therefor to be the boundary line between the Province of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.
1967
71 Feb. 23	The Public Service Employment Act replaces the Civil Service Act; it retains the merit system of appointment and promotion as well as the type of job security long in effect, but extends them to prevailing rate employees and ships' officers and crews; the Civil Service Commission becomes the Public Service Commission.