

Battles of the Somme in 1916. June 1, Senator Mariana Jodoin, 84, Montreal, Senator Thomas Alexander Crerar, 89, Winnipeg, Senator Clarence Veniot, 80, Bathurst, N.B., and Senator William H. Taylor, 76, Brantford, Ont., retired from the Senate. June 2, U.S. satellite Surveyor I launched May 30, landed on the moon and returned photos indicating that the surface seemed suitable for landings of manned craft. Unveiling of portrait of former Speaker Alan Macnaughton, painted by Lillias Newton of Ottawa, to be hung in the gallery of former Speakers in the Centre Block. June 3-5, Two U.S. astronauts in the Gemini 9 rocket in three-day flight which included rendezvous with a target satellite and a walk in space, the latter cut short by defective faceplate. June 5, André Durocher, convicted holdup man and escape-mate of Lucien Rivard, found hanged in QPP Headquarters the day before he was to be charged with the deaths of André Paquette and Alice Rioux, whose bodies were found buried near Piedmont, north of Montreal. Provincial election in Quebec; Union Nationale Party under Daniel Johnson elected. Edwin Godfrey Newman, Bella Bella, B.C., became the first native Indian to be appointed a magistrate and judge of the family and children's court. June 6, The 75th anniversary of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald commemorated at Queen's Park in Toronto. $12,000,000 bequest to the Canada Council from the late Dorothy J. Killam announced. June 7, The Presbyterian Church voted 133-72 in favour of ordination of women. Twenty-six of 27 men charged with criminal contempt for picketing a Peterborough plastics plant in defiance of a court order were found guilty. June 8, The Centenary of the first convening of Parliament in Ottawa noted by Rt. Hon. J. G. Diefenbaker in the House of Commons. June 9, First woman to hold the post of foreign ambassador to Canada. Dora Alencar de Vasconcellos of Brazil, arrived in Ottawa. June 10, The federal Department of Justice announced launching of investigation into alleged multi-million-dollar credit frauds by some bankrupt firms. Agreement signed by the CPR and the National Harbours Board ended 30-year legal argument over ownership of Vancouver's waterfront and paved the way for redevelopment of the area. June 11, Dave Bailey, Toronto, became the first Canadian to break the four-minute mile (3:59.1). At Springfield, Ill., Prime Minister Pearson received one of the 1966 Atlantic Union Pioneer Awards for leadership in uniting NATO countries into a federal union. June 12, Death of Daniel Leo Dolan, career public servant and diplomat who organized and became Director of the Canadian Travel Bureau. June 13, Dr. Geoffrey Hattersley-Smith of the Defence Research Board presented with a Royal Geographical Society gold medal for his glaciological investigations in the Canadian Arctic. June 14, The 39-day strike of Quebec longshoremen, halting operations in the ports of Montreal, Quebec and Trois-Rivières, ended with the granting of a 34-p.c. increase and establishment of a federal inquiry to negotiate other problems. June 15, Mr. Justice Meunier of the Quebec Superior Court, convicted of perjury in 1964, granted a new trial by the Quebec Appeal Court. External Affairs Minister Martin confirmed in the House of Commons that Chester Ronning, retired diplomat and expert on Far Eastern affairs, was on a mission for the Federal Government believed to be connected with possible peace negotiations in North Viet-Nam. June 16, A strike of 4,253 sales employees of Air Canada that threatened to ground the airline averted by a last-minute wage settlement. Threatened strike of St. Lawrence Seaway operating employees averted by an agreement increasing wages by 20 p.c. retroactive to Jan. 1 and an additional 10 p.c. in 1967. June 19, Ceremony held in Toronto marking 75th anniversary of the first Ukrainian settlers in Canada. June 20, Conclusion of a $800,000,000 contract between Canada and the U.S.S.R. for the purchase of Canadian wheat and flour announced. June 21, Designation of the birthplace of Col. John McCrae, author of the poem In Flanders Fields, at Guelph, Ont., as a national historic site; to be restored in co-operation with the City of Guelph. June 22, Senator Keith Davey accepted the commissionership of the Canadian Football League. June 23, Provincial election held in Manitoba; Premier Duff Roblin's Progressive Conservative government returned for a fourth term. June 25, Titled Hero, Canadian-bred horse owned by Peter K. Marshall, Toronto, won Queen's Plate. June 27, Russian parliamentarians led by Dmitry Polyansky began 10-day visit to Canada.

July: July 5, The late Busher Jackson and Fred Cook elected to Hockey Hall of Fame. July 6, Prime Minister Pearson announced grants and development loans to Commonwealth countries in the Caribbean to the extent of $71,000,000 over five years. July 6-8, Canada-Commonwealth Caribbean Conference held in Ottawa. July 7, A Bill to incorporate the Bank of Western Canada—Canada's ninth bank and the first new Canadian-financed bank in 50 years—passed by the Senate. July 8, Eleven staff members of This Hour Has Seven Days left or were dismissed by the CBC. July 9-10, Memorandum of Association signifying the union of the two largest Civil Service staff associations—the Civil Service Federation and the Civil Service Association and their affiliates—with a membership of some 115,000, signed. July 11, Death of Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, scientist, former President of the National Research Council, Commander of the first Canadian Army Overseas in World War II and Canadian Chairman of the International Joint Commission. July 12, Agreement signed between Canada and Trinidad and Tobago under which Canada will supply modern port-handling equipment up to an amount of $350,000 to Port-of-Spain. July 13, Loan agreement signed making $600,000 available for the expansion of the school system in Jamaica. Parliamentary Committee on Consumer Credit given a special mandate to investigate living costs; study opened Sept. 28, with food prices the first topic of inquiry. July 14, Mrs. J. E. Ahern of Halifax appointed judge of the Halifax Citizenship Court, the first woman to be appointed to such office in Canada. July 15, An Act to set up a Crown agency to operate the $36,000,000 National Arts Centre in Ottawa received Royal Assent. Four Rear Admirals confirmed their requests for early retirement in the dispute with Defence Minister Hellyer over integration of the Armed Forces. July 15-18, Non-medical workers at Quebec hospitals, including seven in the Montreal area, went on strike, demanding increased wages and a new work contract. July 16, Federal grant of $2,000,000 to the endowment of the Vanier Institute of The Family approved. July 21, George and Viola MacMillan, prominent figures in the Canadian mining industry, committed for trial on two charges each of fraud in influencing the market price of Windfall Oils and Mines shares. July 22, U.S. astronauts completed a three-day trip in Gemini 10 after setting an altitude record and achieving the first dual rendezvous. July 25, Farmers in various parts of Ontario obstructed highway traffic with tractors in demonstrations of protest against provincial agriculture policies; others on July 27 marched to the Legislative Buildings. Martine van Hamel, Toronto, won junior class of international ballet competition in Bulgaria. External Affairs Minister Martin announced an additional grant in aid available to Zambia to help with "the economic problems resulting from actions of the Smith regime in Rhodesia". July 26, Report of Mr. Justice Daiton Wells found George Victor Spencer, former federal postal clerk, guilty of gross misconduct in supplying information to Russia and that the government of this country would have been culpable if they had