

Drinking Falls on the Churchill River, to the north of Lac la Ronge in north-central Saskatchewan. This is typical of the rugged beauty of Canadian Shield terrain with its exposed rocks, its myriad of lakes and rivers and its ever-present promise of hidden wealth.