

Unemployment Insurance Commission.—The Commission was established under the provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940, now the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1955 (SC 1955, c. 50). It is responsible for the administration of the Unemployment Insurance Act and for such other duties and responsibilities as the Governor in Council, on the recommendations of the Minister of Labour, requires. Its general functions are to provide for the compulsory insurance of employed persons with certain exceptions and, subject to regulations, to provide such persons with weekly payments for limited periods if they become unemployed.

The Commission has three Commissioners, one of whom is the Chief Commissioner, and operates at three levels—a head office in Ottawa, five regional offices, and a number of area and district offices across the country. It reports to Parliament through the Minister of Labour.
