Deportations.—Deportations by cause and nationality are shown in Table 11 for the years 1964-66. Persons who have not yet acquired domicile (five years of residence in Canada as landed immigrants) may be deported if they fall into prohibited classes at time of admission or within five years of admission, if they have engaged in commercialized vice, have been convicted under the Criminal Code or have become inmates of prisons, or have gained admission by fraudulent means. The causes that may lead to deportation are narrowed after a person has acquired domicile. A person not a citizen may be deported regardless of length of residence if he is found to be a member of a subversive organization or engages in subversive activities, or if he has been convicted of an offence involving disloyalty to the Queen, or if he has, outside of Canada, engaged in activities detrimental to the security of Canada. A Canadian citizen cannot be deported.
