Foreign enrolment has risen considerably during the past decade, with a larger proportion of students from countries other than the United States and Britain coming to Canadian institutions, as shown in Table 9. In 1966-67 about one of every 18 full-time university students in Canada was a resident of a country other than Canada. The United States, Hong Kong, Trinidad and Tobago, India and Britain each accounted for over 500 students, and France, Pakistan, Malaysia, Viet-Nam, Nigeria, Jamaica, the Republic of China, Japan, Germany, Guyana and Haiti contributed from 100 to 400 each. About 150 other countries or territories were represented in the figures.
