94 May 8	The Adult Occupational Training Act extends training services to all persons with adult responsibilities who can benefit from such occupational training. It authorizes: the entering into contracts with provinces and employers to provide for payment of costs they may incur for such training; the payment of tuition and other costs for training courses not operated by a province or an employer; the payment of training allowances to persons undertaking occupational training; the making of agreements with the provinces respecting research in this field; and the payment of loans to provinces to assist in the provision of training facilities. The Act arranges for the transition from present agreements to the new program.
95 May 8	Appropriation Act No. 4, 1967 grants certain sums of money for the public service for the financial year ending Mar. 31, 1968.
96 May 8	The Canadian Forces Reorganization Act amends the National Defence Act to provide for the amalgamation of the Navy, Army and Air Force into a single service called the Canadian Armed Forces, and amends other Acts in consequence thereof.
97 May 8	An Act to amend the Income Tax Act terminates, effective Mar. 31, 1967, the tax period to which the special 5-p.c. refundable tax on business profits applies and also terminates on the same date the period of collection of the tax from corporations.

* The first session of the Twenty-seventh Parliament opened Jan. 18, 1966; legislation passed from that date to the Easter adjournment in 1967 is outlined in the 1967 Year Book, pp. 1247-1253.
