

man who held an Air Canada hostess hostage for 24 hours in Frankfurt, Federal Republic of Germany, killed by police. Nov. 29, Federal government approved a three-phase, $74 million project to broaden, computerize and eventually automate air traffic surveillance to improve safety and efficiency of air traffic control in southern Canada and help cope with air traffic congestion around large cities. Nov. 30, Dr. W.B. Lewis, vice-president of Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., awarded a "royal medal" by the Royal Society in London for his contributions to the development of heavy water reactors for power generation. Agreement signed by provincial and regional egg producing and marketing authorities to set up the National Farm Products Marketing Council.

December

Dec. 1, Unemployment insurance contribution rate increased for Canadian workers and employers.

Dec. 3, Death in Toronto of Alan Jarvis, former director of the National Art Gallery. The Hamilton Tiger-Cats won the Grey Cup by defeating the Saskatchewan Roughriders by a score of 13-10 in Canadian professional football playoffs. Dec. 4,

The federal government announced the provision of $350 million to the provinces and municipalities for job-producing programs over the next three years; and an additional $150 million for federal programs. Dec. 9, Jacques Rose acquitted in Montreal in second trial for kidnapping the late Quebec Minister of Labour Pierre Laporte. Bush pilot Martin Hartwell, lost on a mercy flight, found alive in Northwest Territories 32 days after crash of his aircraft in which his three passengers died. Dec. 11, Apollo astronauts walked on moon in last lunar expedition scheduled for this decade; successful splashdown in Pacific December 19. Dec. 12-14, First annual consultative meeting held in Ottawa under the Agreement between Canada and the Federal Republic of Germany on Scientific and Technical Co-operation of April 16, 1971. Dec. 15, Federal government recommended a delay in construction of the Mackenzie Highway announced April 28 in order to review possible effects on the ecology. Dec. 19, The National Gallery of Canada purchased a 16th century French painting The Surrender of Milan by Antoine Caron of the Fontainebleau School. Dec. 20, Federal government announced an immediate ban on whaling off the east coast by Canadian ships because of declining stocks. Dec. 26, Death in Kansas City, Mo., of Harry S. Truman, 88, former President of the United States. Dec. 27, Death in Ottawa of Rt. Hon. Lester B. Pearson, 75, former Prime Minister of Canada.