

Incomes and social security

Chapter 6

6.1	Family incomes	269	6.7.1	Social assistance	282
6.1.1	Family and income concepts	269	6.7.2	Quebec Pension Plan	283
6.1.2	Income trends, 1951-74	270	6.7.3	Supplementary Family Allowance programs	283
6.1.3	Major sources of income	270	6.7.4	Provincial income supplementation programs	283
6.1.4	Regional income distributions	270	6.8	Provincial social services programs	284
6.1.5	Income distributions by family characteristics	271	6.8.1	Services for children	284
6.2	Family spending	271	6.8.2	Programs for the aged	285
6.2.1	Family (spending unit) concept	272	6.8.3	Vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons	286
6.2.2	Family expenditure patterns	272	6.9	Programs for Indians	286
6.3	Social security programs	274	6.10	Veterans programs	287
6.4	Income security programs of NHW	275	6.10.1	Pensions and allowances	288
6.4.1	Family Allowances: the federal program	275	6.10.2	Social and health services for veterans	290
6.4.2	Canada Pension Plan	276	6.10.3	Land settlement and house construction	292
6.4.3	OAS, GIS and Spouse's Allowance	277	6.10.4	Commonwealth War Graves Commission	293
6.5	Social services programs of NHW	279
6.5.1	National welfare grants	279
6.5.2	New Horizons Program	279
6.5.3	Family planning	280
6.5.4	Emergency Welfare Services	280
6.5.5	The Adoption Desk	280
6.5.6	National Day Care Information Centre	280
6.5.7	Rehabilitation services	280
6.5.8	International welfare	281
6.6	Federal-provincial cost-sharing programs	281
6.6.1	Canada Assistance Plan	281
6.6.2	Allowances for the blind and disabled	282
6.6.3	Vocational rehabilitation	282
6.7	Provincial income security programs	282			