

Incomes and social security

Chapter 6

6.1	Family incomes	245	6.6.3	Vocational rehabilitation	256
6.1.1	Family and income concepts	245	6.7	Provincial income security programs	256
6.1.2	Income trends, 1951-75	246	6.7.1	Social assistance	256
6.1.3	Major sources of income	246	6.7.2	Quebec Pension Plan	257
6.1.4	Regional income distributions	246	6.7.3	Supplementary family allowance programs	257
6.1.5	Income distributions by family characteristics	246	6.7.4	Provincial income supplementation programs	259
6.2	Family spending	247	6.8	Provincial social services programs	259
6.2.1	Family (spending unit) concept	248	6.8.1	Services for children	259
6.2.2	Family food expenditure patterns	248	6.8.2	Programs for the aged	260
6.3	Social security programs	249	6.8.3	Vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons	261
6.4	Income security programs of NHW	249	6.9	Programs for Indians	261
6.4.1	Family Allowances: the federal program	249	6.10	Veterans programs	262
6.4.2	Canada Pension Plan	250	6.10.1	Pensions and allowances	263
6.4.3	Old Age Security coverage	252	6.10.2	Social and health services for veterans	264
6.4.4	Guaranteed Income Supplement	253	6.10.3	Land settlement and house construction	266
6.4.5	Spouse's Allowance	253	6.10.4	Commonwealth War Graves Commission	266
6.5	Social services programs of NHW	253
6.5.1	National welfare grants	253
6.5.2	New Horizons program	254
6.5.3	Family planning	254
6.5.4	Emergency Welfare Services	254
6.5.5	Adoption Desk	255
6.5.6	Day Care Information Centre	255
6.5.7	Rehabilitation services	255
6.5.8	International welfare	255
6.6	Federal-provincial cost-sharing programs	255
6.6.1	Canada Assistance Plan	255
6.6.2	Allowances for the blind and disabled	256			