<sup>1</sup> The most significant disposition for a case, whether for one charge or more than one, is that which has the greatest impact on the living situation of the young person.
<sup>3</sup> "Other" includes other dispositions such as essays, apologies or counselling programs.
<sup>4</sup> A case consists of one or more charges laid against a young person which were presented to the court at the same time and disposed of in the fiscal year specified. If the same young person reappears in court on a different date on a new set of charges, this will constitute another case.
