

of Mr. Douglas Brymner, and references to it from various parts of the world for information respecting questions which have to be settled by documentary evidence are daily increasing, while there is scarcely a work recently published on the history of Canada or the United States which has not been much indebted to this branch for information, and which does not contain acknowledgments of obligations for assistance rendered.

Date of establishment.

708. The branch was established in June, 1872, since which time the collection and classification of State papers and records, Parliamentary documents of all kinds, copies of parish registers, old documents and family papers, original accounts of many of the early settlements, and miscellaneous documents of general and local interest, has been perseveringly proceeded with, and the value of the present collection, incomplete as it is, can hardly be estimated.
