

On the whole the great bulk of Canadian immigration of the past generation has been drawn from the English-speaking countries and from those continental European countries where the population is ethnically nearly related to the British. The nationalities of the immigrant arrivals of the 8 years from 1918 to 1925 are shown in Table 2, while in Table 3 the number of arrivals is given by ports for the years 1920 to 1925.
