Subsection 4.—Trade with the United Kingdom and the British Empire

Trade with the United Kingdom.—The trade of Canada for many years has been carried on predominantly with the United Kingdom and the United States, both great trading countries, whose people speak the English language, and with whose standards of living and tastes Canadians have much in common. The fluctuating positions of the two countries in this regard, from Confederation to the outbreak of War in 1939 are discussed at pp. 414-415 of the 1941 Year Book.
