

Sources for Federal Data	Subject	Sources for Provincial Data
	RECREATION See "Physical Fitness"
Dept. of Veterans Affairs Dept. of Labour Civilian Rehabilitation Branch Dept. of National Health and Welfare	REHABILITATION
	RESEARCH See "Economic and Social Research" and "Scientific Research"
National Research Council Laboratory Divisions (for investigations in applied biology, building research, pure and applied chemistry, mechanical engineering, including aeronautics and hydraulics, physics, radio and electrical engineering, medical research, etc.) (Scholarships and grants-in-aid for graduate research in the universities) Inquiries for general research information should be addressed to the Technical Information Service. Dept. of Mines and Technical Surveys Dept. of Resources and Development Forestry Branch National Parks Branch, Canadian Wildlife Services, National Museum of Canada Dept. of Agriculture Science Service (for research in animal and plant pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, entomology, etc.) Experimental Farms Service (for research in agricultural engineering, crop production, breeding and genetics, plant and animal nutrition, etc.) Dept. of Transport (aviation, radio, meteorology, navigation) Dept. of National Defence Defence Research Board, Directorate of Public Relations Dept. of Fisheries Fisheries Research Board of Canada Dept. of National Health and Welfare	SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH	Nfld.:—Dept. of Economic Development N.S.:—Nova Scotia Research Foundation Que.:—Dept. of Trade and Commerce, Scientific Research Bureau Ont.:—Research Council of Ontario, Ontario Research Foundation Man.:—Various Depts., such as Health and Welfare, Mines and Natural Resources, Agriculture and Immigration, Industry and Commerce Sask.:—Research Council Alta.:—Alberta Research Council B.C.:—Dept. of Trade and Industry ■ Research Council
	SENATE See "Parliament"	