

APPENDIX I

The information normally appearing in Subsections 1 and 2 of the Federal Government Section of Chapter II on Constitution and Government (see p. 45) has been taken into this volume as Appendix I in order to permit the inclusion of information becoming available following the General Election of Aug. 10, 1953.

Section 1.—The Federal Government

Subsection 1.—The Executive

The Crown.—The British North America Act provides that “the Executive Government and authority of and over Canada is vested in the Queen” The functions of the Crown, which are substantially the same as those of the Queen in relation to the Government of the United Kingdom, are discharged by the Governor General in accordance with established principles of responsible government. The practical executive functions of government are exercised by the Cabinet.

Apart from her constitutional position in relation to the various governments of the Commonwealth countries, the Queen is Head of the Commonwealth and symbolizes the association of the member countries. Until 1953, the title of the Queen was the same throughout the Commonwealth. Constitutional developments put the title somewhat out of accord with the facts of the position and, in December 1952, it was decided by the Prime Ministers of the Commonwealth countries meeting at London to establish new forms of title for each country. The title for Canada was approved by Parliament and established by a Royal Proclamation on May 29, 1953. The title of the Queen, so far as Canada is concerned, now is:—

“Elizabeth the Second, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom, Canada and her other realms and territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith”

The Governor General.—The Governor General, appointed by the Queen on the advice of the Prime Minister of Canada, traditionally serves for a term of five years. He exercises the executive authority of the Queen in relation to the Government of Canada, under the Letters Patent constituting the Office of Governor General and the provisions of the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1952. Acting under the recommendations of his responsible advisers, he summons, prorogues and dissolves Parliament and assents to Bills and exercises other executive functions.
