

Although Safety Responsibility Legislation has not been enacted in either the Yukon Territory or the Northwest Territories, the Motor Vehicle Ordinances of the two Territories require the owner of a motor-vehicle to submit evidence of stipulated insurance coverage on such vehicle before he can obtain registration.

Unsatisfied Judgment Funds.—In recent years a new type of motor-vehicle legislation has been enacted in all provinces except Quebec and Saskatchewan. This has usually taken the form of an amendment to the motor-vehicle laws of the province and provides for the establishment of an Unsatisfied Judgment Fund, out of which are paid judgments awarded for damages arising out of motor-vehicle accidents in the province which cannot be collected in the ordinary process of law. The Fund is created by the collection annually of an Unsatisfied Judgment Fund fee from the registered owner of every motor-vehicle or from every person to whom a driver's licence is issued. This fee does not exceed $1 per annum. A feature of this legislation which is contained in some provincial statutes provides for the payment of judgments in the so-called 'hit and run' accidents. When these occur, if neither the owner nor the driver can be identified, action may be taken against the Registrar of Motor Vehicles; any judgment secured against the Registrar is paid out of the Fund. All of these laws contain a provision limiting the amount that can be paid out of the Fund on one judgment. The limits are $5,000 for one person, $10,000 for two or more persons injured in one accident and $1,000 for property damage. For 'hit and run' accidents payments are made for personal injuries or death only.
